How can you help?

Reading: Set aside a special time to read, read a range of different genres, get caught reading yourself and show that reading is not just for children, read to each other, set a challenge, use audiobooks, visit the library or use your child's favourite films or games as a springboard into reading.

Maths: Incorporate mathematics into everyday routines and activities; telling the time, using money and coins or counting and comparing quantities, use maths talk every day, ask your child to teach you new strategies and solve problems taught in class, play maths games together, practice times tables and maths games online. Explore websites such as Times table rock stars, Sumdog, Hit the Button NRICH (http:// nrich.maths.org/) or Transum (<http://www.transum.org/>)

Day visits/Experiences: visit the library, visit relevant museums,
